Multiculturalism, Anti-racism, Immigration and Community Service Organizations

This section lists organizations across British Columbia whose work relates to multiculturalism, anti-racism, human rights, immigrant settlement, and/or community services. The B.C. Ministry of Community, Aboriginal and Women's Services has worked in partnership with many of the organizations listed below to promote multiculturalism, the elimination of racism, and to support the social and economic integration of immigrants and refugees in the province.

Ethno-cultural Organizations

British Columbia is one of the most multicultural provinces in Canada. The Multiculturalism Act of B.C. promotes cross-cultural understanding and respect for our province's multicultural heritage. Listed below are organizations across British Columbia whose work includes community service, immigrant settlement, cross-cultural understanding and/or the promotion and enrichment of a particular cultural heritage in British Columbia.

Aboriginal

English Language Services for Adults

ELSA stands for English Language Services for Adults. ELSA is basic English training for adult newcomers to Canada and is funded by the government. It is free for students. Some ELSA classes have free child-minding for pre-school age children.

Where can I apply for ELSA?

Prior to starting in the program, you need to have a language assessment done.

If you live in Vancouver, Burnaby, Richmond, New Westminster, North Vancouver, or West Vancouver, contact:

Western ESL Services
208 - 2525 Commercial Drive
Vancouver BC V5N 4C1
(604) 876-5756 fax (604) 876-0134

If you live in Surrey, the Tri-Cities area, or the Fraser Valley, contact:

Timeline Data Solutions Ltd.
130 - 7525 King George Highway
Surrey BC V3W 5A8
(604) 507-4150 fax (604) 507-4155

If you live in Greater Victoria, contact:

Valerie Johnson, Assessor
Mailing Address:
#311, 185 - 911 Yates Street
Victoria BC V8V 4Y9
Tel/Fax: (250) 727-0554

If you live outside of the Lower Mainland or Greater Victoria, please contact your local immigrant settlement agency or ELSA school.
